

2022 Women's Silver Anniversary Team members

ERICA CORY

Set 15 New Castle girls basketball records including career scoring (1,546 points), career scoring average (17.4 ppg), career assists (579), career 3FG made (244), career FT made (350), career FT% (.781), single-season records in scoring, 3FG made and assists and single-game 3FG made (9), FT%, and assists (20). She was the only 4-time all-North Central Conference player in New Castle history and led teams to three of the five best seasons in program history, winning a NCC title, four sectional titles and two regional championships on teams that went 63-26. She won the 1996 state three-point competition, was four-time all-sectional, twice all-regional, the two-time Henry County Player of the Year, two-time team captain and a 1997 Top 40 Workout participant. She played at Southern Illinois Edwardsville, playing in 30 games as a freshman (7.7 ppg & 3.2 apg) and starting all 18 games her sophomore year (8.7 ppg & 3.7 apg) before a career-ending back injury that has required 11 back surgeries. She taught and coached at Lafayette Jeff from 2007-2010 and since 2012 has been part owner of their family lawncare business in New Castle.

NEW CASTLE

KATIE DOUGLAS

1997 Indiana All-Star, Indianapolis Super Team Player of the Year, 1st team all-state, 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star and three-time all-Marion County. She set Perry Meridian records in career and season scoring, assists and steals, totaling 1,406 career points, 513 rebounds, 409 assists and 357 steals. Averaged 19.3 points, 6.6 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 4.4 steals as a senior for 26-1 Falcons squad to finish with an undefeated regular season and reaching the semi-state in the final season of the one-class state tournament. A two-time 1st team All-American at Purdue, she started 101 of 135 career games played, graduated with 1,965 points (4th in program history), 526 assists (3rd), and a program-record 327 career steals. A member of the Boilers' 1999 National Championship team and 2001 Final Four squad, she earned Big Ten Player of the Year and Purdue Female Athlete of the Year honors, along with academic All-American honors. The 10th pick of the 2001 WNBA Draft, she played 14 seasons in the league, including a 2012 WNBA Championship, five WNBA All-Star selections, 2006 WNBA All-Star Game MVP, four all-WNBA teams and retired among WNBA career leaders in scoring, three-pointers and steals. She resides in Indianapolis.

PERRY MERIDIAN

CANDACE (CRAWFORD) HALL

1997 Indiana All-Star, averaging 16.7 points and 14.1 rebounds as a senior for Homestead's sectional champion team and was named the Northeast Indiana Girls Player of the Year. Averaged a double-double all four seasons of high school, winning four sectional titles and graduating with 1,229 points and 929 rebounds. Played in 125 games over four seasons at Purdue University, as a member of their 1998 Elite Eight team, 1999 National Championship team and starting 17 of 38 games played as a senior for their 2001 National Runner-Up team and earned academic All-American honors. She worked in sport marketing for Arizona State University, basketball communications with the WNBA Phoenix Mercury and since 2006 has worked with FedEx. She resides in Fort Wayne.

HOMESTEAD

2022 Women's Silver Anniversary Team members

RUTH (RILEY) HUNTER

NORTH MIAMI

1997 Indiana All-Star, 1st team all-state and honorable mention All-American, averaging 26 points per game and leading team to undefeated regular season, sectional championship and 20-1 record as a senior. Set 12 school records, including 1,372 career points, 1,011 rebounds, 427 blocks and .639 career FG%. Also setting single-season records in points, rebounds, blocks and FG%, she had single-game records of 45 points and 24 rebounds. Scoring 2,072 points in 131 games at Notre Dame, she was a three-time All-American and 2001 National Player of the Year, capped by leading the Irish to the 2001 National Championship. She was Most Outstanding Player of the 2001 Final Four, posting 28 points, 13 rebounds and seven blocks in the national title game against Purdue. The 5th pick of the 2001 WNBA Draft, she played 12 seasons in the league, was a two-time WNBA champion, 2003 WNBA Finals MVP, WNBA All-Star and 1st Vice President of the WNBA Players Association. She was a member of the 2004 gold medal U.S. women's basketball team. After serving as general manager of the San Antonio Stars, since 2018 she has been a television and radio analyst for the Miami Heat.

SHANNON LAYNE

YORKTOWN

Scored 1,601 career points after averaging 24.1 points and 8.2 rebounds as a senior and 27.5 points and 6.9 rebounds as a junior on teams that went 36-6 winning two County championships, a conference and 1996 sectional championship. Set school records with 307 career steals, 577 points in one season, 120 steals in a season and game-highs of 42 points and 12 steals. A 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star, two-time East Central Indiana Player of the Year and three-time Delaware County Player of the Year. Totaling 1,027 career points in four seasons at the University of South Florida, she graduated among program leaders in career 3FG% (37%) and season 3FG% (44%). Earning a degree in Marine & Environmental Science, she resides in Northbrook, Illinois and has been employed at Shedd Aquarium and the Lincoln Park Zoo.

JENNY MARTIN

CENTER GROVE

1997 Indiana All-Star after graduating 2nd in school history in career scoring (1,275 points), career FGs (385), 3rd in career FTs (235), 5th in career steals (219) and with school records in single-game FGs made (15) and season FG% (.638). A starter for Center Grove's 1996 state champions, she earned all-state, all-semistate, all-regional and all-sectional honors, was the three-time Johnson County Player of the Year, Indianapolis All-Suburban Player of the Year, All-South Zone Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American as a member of teams that were 85-11, winning a state championship, two regionals, four sectionals, three Johnson County and three South Central Conference titles, and ranked #4 in the nation by USA Today. She played four seasons at Miami (OH) University, averaging 11.6 points per game as a sophomore and 13.0 points per game as a junior and tying school records in single-game scoring (32) and single-game FGs (14). She was a team captain, three-time MAC academic honor roll and an Academic All-American nominee. Employed in the medical field, she is currently sales director for Abbott Medical Devices and resides in Indianapolis.

2022 Women's Silver Anniversary Team members

KATRINA MERRIWEATHER

1997 Indiana All-Star, ICGSA all-state, Indianapolis Recorder City Athlete of the Year, Indiana All-Stars John Wooden Award winner, three-time all-city, two time all-regional and 1996 all-semistate after leading Cathedral to four sectional titles and 1996 regional championship. Totaled 1,017 points and 613 career rebounds after averaging 20.5 points and 9.4 rebounds her senior season. Set Cathedral records for season FT made (120), season FT% (.800) and career FT%. A four-year letterwinner at the University of Cincinnati, she was the first player in UC history to play in four postseason tournaments, with one NCAA Tournament berth and three WNIT appearances. She has been an assistant coach at Cincinnati, Illinois-Chicago and Purdue. From 2016-2021, she was the head coach at Wright State University, leading them to three conference championships, two conference tournament titles and named conference coach of the year three times. She is in her first season as the head coach of the University of Memphis.

CATHEDRAL

GRETCHEN MILES

Graduated 2nd in school history with 1,588 career points and 625 assists, while setting school records in games played (98), career 3FG made (223), career FT% (.793) and season 3FG made (86). Averaged 21.7 point and 5.4 assists as junior and 20.7 points and 7.2 assists as senior as part of teams that went 89-9, winning four conference titles, four sectional titles, four regional championships and reached the 1995 state finals. Was a 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star, ICGSA all-state and 1997 Evansville Courier Player of the Year. She attended the University of Southern Indiana, where she played basketball and tennis. Since 2008, she has been the head coach of her alma mater, Washington H.S., with a 196-91 record, two consecutive sectional championships, three-time HBCA Coach of the Year, 2014 IBCA District Coach of the Year and a 2014 Indiana All-Star assistant coach.

WASHINGTON

LIZ (STANSBERRY) MITCHELL

1997 Indiana All-Star and three-time all-state honors, she scored over 1,000 points at Center Grove as a four-year starter, including their 1996 state champion team. A member of teams to go 63-8, winning four sectionals, two regionals and one state title, along with four Johnson County championships, she earned all-sectional, all-regional and all-semistate recognitions, all-Metro, all conference and four years all-county. A senior on Center Grove's team that was ranked #4 in the nation by USA Today. Attended Vincennes University, as a member of their 29-1 team ranked 6th in the country, she completed her career at Murray State University, earning all-conference honors. She is corporate director of business development for NeuroPsychiatric and resides in Morgantown.

CENTER GROVE

STACI MUELLER

1997 Indiana All-Star. Set school record (men's or women's) at Harrison with 1,700 career points, along with 721 rebounds, 454 assists and 437 steals. Was the state's leading scorer in her 1997 at 28.9 points per game, after averaging 21.7 as junior and 20.7 as a sophomore. 1997 Evansville City Player of the Year, Conference Player of the Year, three years all-city, three years all-conference and led city of Evansville in scoring all four seasons. Played two seasons at Indiana University. Finishing her degree in criminal justice at Charleston Southern University. After service in the U.S. Air Force, she is a police officer with the Atlanta Police Department in Atlanta, Georgia.

EVANSVILLE HARRISON

2022 Women's Silver Anniversary Team members

ABBI (WILSON) ROSEN

1997 ICGSA all-state and 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star after 1,255 career points, a school record 901 career rebounds and 314 blocks at Huntington North. Set season rebound record (264), graduated 3rd in career scoring, 5th in season scoring and 5th in career FT% and recorded the first triple-double in school history (20 points, 10 rebounds, 13 blocks). Averaged 17.1 points and 10.4 rebounds her senior season, 13.5 points and 10.2 rebounds as a junior and 11.0 points and 7.5 rebounds as a sophomore on the 1995 state championship team. Played for teams that went 91-12, winning four sectional titles, three regional championships and the 1995 state title. Was three-time all-conference, three-time all-sectional, twice all-regional and twice all-semistate. Played in 66 games over three seasons at the University of South Florida, earning a degree in elementary education, graduating cum laude. After working outside the home the last 20 years, she is currently a stay at home mom with three children. She resides in Fishers.

HUNTINGTON NORTH

JULIE SCHRADER

1997 Indiana All-Star, 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star and all-state player after career totals of 1,664 points, 914 rebounds, and 273 blocks, also set school records in season FGs, season blocks, single-game scoring (38) and single-game blocks (11). The three-time White County Player of the Year, four-time all-conference, she led teams to two sectional championships, two conference championships and averaged 22.8 points and 10.8 rebounds as a senior. Played in 112 games in four years at Butler University, totaling 1,005 career points and 591 rebounds. She earned MCC all-conference and MCC academic all-conference recognitions. Since 2005, she has worked at Butler University, currently as Senior Associate Director of Career and Professional Success. She resides in Carmel.

TWIN LAKES

CONSTANCE (MURDOCK) SHERROD

1997 Indiana All-Star, Indianapolis Star 1st team all-state, AP 2nd team all-state, 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star and Nike All-American participant after averaging 14.8 points and 12.0 rebounds per game for 20-2 conference and sectional champions her senior season. Set school records of 1,076 career points and 963 career rebounds and single-game rebound mark of 25. Was four-year all-conference (three times 1st team all-conference), all-Metro, all-sectional and all-regional and had junior year averages of 17.8 points and 13.1 rebounds. Attended Purdue University, where she played 35 games in two seasons on their 1998 Elite Eight and 1999 National Champion teams, before transferring and finishing her career at North Carolina Central University, averaging 8.8 points and 6.2 rebounds on their 25-6 conference champion and NCAA Division II national tournament team and earning academic all-conference recognition. She signed with the WNBA Houston Comets. After earning a law degree, she is Managing Attorney of a law firm in Chicago and resides there.

SOUTH BEND CLAY

ANDI SPEER

1997 Indiana All-Star and 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star after averaging 16.7 points and 6.7 rebounds as a senior. Totaled 842 points and 425 rebounds in her career, earning all-conference and three times all-area honors, along with two sectional championships and a Hoosier Hills Conference championship for teams that went 65-17 over four years. Played in 91 games over four seasons at the University of Evansville with career totals of 453 points, 224 rebounds and 143 assists on teams that won a Missouri Valley Conference championship, NCAA National Tournament appearance and one WNIT appearance.

JENNINGS COUNTY

2022 Women's Silver Anniversary Team members

LISA (SHEPHERD) STIDHAM

1997 Indiana Miss Basketball, Gatorade Indiana Player of the Year, Parade 1st team All-American and WBCA All-American accolades after setting school record of 2,140 points. Also set school single-game scoring record (49) and was MVP of the 1996 Hall of Fame Classic her senior year. Totaled 1,663 career points at Penn State University, where she was named 1998 Big Ten all-freshman team, twice honorable mention all-Big Ten and three-times academic all-Big Ten. Averaging double-figures all four seasons, she was a part of their 1998 WNIT championship team and their 2000 30-5 NCAA Final Four squad. She has been an assistant to her high school coach DeeAnn Ramey at North Central H.S. for nine years, has coached at New Palestine Jr. High and will be a member of the Hamilton Southeastern H.S. coaching staff this season. An owner of Dream Makers Basketball & S&S Elite Sports, she resides in New Palestine.

RICHMOND

TAMIE STINER

1997 Indiana All-Star and 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star, she scored 1,007 points (4th in program history), was 3rd in school history with 300 career assists and 279 steals and 2nd with 140 three-pointers and still holds a single-game record of 6-6 3FG made. Averaged 14.8 points, 4.8 rebounds and 4.2 assists as senior for 20-5 team that reached the semi-state finals. Was a three-year team MVP, three-year all-conference, three-time Howard County Co-Most Valuable Player, twice Sectional MVP and twice Regional MVP on teams winning four sectionals, three regionals and 1996 and 1994 state finals appearances. She resides in Knightstown.

KOKOMO

A.J. WHITEHEAD

All-state honors as team MVP for 25-1 state finalist team as a senior and received the IHSAA Mental Attitude Award for girls basketball. Totaled 739 career points, 456 rebounds and 138 assists on teams that went 68-4 over three seasons, winning three Northern Lakes Conference titles, three sectionals, three regional championships and reaching the 1997 state finals. She earned NLC all-conference honors as a junior and senior. In three seasons at Bethel College, she totaled 1,676 career points and 804 rebounds in 108 games (15.5 ppg and 7.4 rpg career averages). Leading her team to the 2000 NCCAA National Championship, she was the 2000 NCCAA National Player of the Year and National Tournament MVP, a three-time NCCAA All-American, 2001 NAIA All-American and 2001 MCC Conference Player of the Year and three-time all-conference. Earning a master's in exercise science, she has worked in strength and conditioning with the Turkish Basketball Federation, UW Green Bay, UMass Lowell, Purdue University and is currently the Associate Director of Strength and Conditioning at the University of Wisconsin. She resides in Madison, Wisconsin.

NORTHWOOD

AMBER (HOLLE) WILLIAMS

1997 Indiana All-Star and 1996 Indiana Junior All-Star graduated 2nd in school history with 1,210 career points and 351 assists and among program leaders with 619 career rebounds. Was a four-year starter, four-time all-SCC, four-time all-sectional and four-time all-area selection and the 1997 Seymour H.S. Outstanding Female Athlete after averaging 19.3 points and 8.4 rebounds as a junior and 20.3 points, 7.7 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game as a senior. Played in 49 games in two seasons at New Mexico State University, followed by 57 games in two seasons at IUPUI. In 106 career college games, she scored 962 points, averaging 12.9 ppg her junior season and 15.4 ppg as a senior. She set IUPUI records with 25 consecutive FT made, single-game 3FG (6-6), single-game FT (12-12) and graduated 3rd in career FT% (81%) and 3rd in 3FG% (44%). She had been head coach at Trinity Lutheran H.S., Jennings County Middle School and is currently youth coordinator for Seymour Lady Owls Basketball. An elementary physical education teacher in Seymour, she resides there.

SEYMOUR